Exciting game drives, a brilliant mix of culture and never-ending views all to yourself. The accommodation is stylish and romantic - each a real Imagine Africa favourite. This is the designer holiday our Managing Director would choose!

Itinerary

Days

- 1 Check in at London Heathrow for your Kenya Airways flight KQ101 departing 19h00 to Nairobi. Please note that international flights are not included in the price. We can however provide a quote.
- 2 At Nairobi International airport, you will be met in the arrivals hall and transferred by private car to Nairobi's domestic airport, Wilson airport, in time for your Safari Link light aircraft flight departing at 09h15 for Samburu. On arrival into Samburu at approx 11h00 you will be met by your guide and 4x4 safari vehicle and transferred to Saruni Samburu to stay for the next three nights including all meals, drinks (soft drinks and alcoholic drinks) and all game viewing activities.

Samburu

The game-viewing will begin on your transfer. A fantastic way to slowly get accustomed to your stunning new surroundings. Samburu is named after the tribal lands of the Samburu people. The bush here is composed of wild acacia scrub and open savannah, cut through by the crocodile and hippo filled Ewaso Nyiro River. As well as elephant, buffalo, cheetah, leopard and lion, Samburu contains several species that are rarely seen elsewhere such as Grevy's zebra, Somali ostrich, Beisa oryx and the long necked gerenuk.

Days

- 3-4 Full days game viewing in Samburu. Samburu Saruni offer day time and night time 4x4 game drives, as well as guided walks, and you can also go into one of the local villages with one of the guides.

Saruni Samburu

The lodge sits high in the Kalama Mountains, with incredible views over the unspoilt wilds of Samburu. The six luxury en suite 'houses' are enormous, with wide open-fronted verandas. Charismatic Samburu guides (some of the best qualified in Kenya) lead safari activities, and the lodge has a very friendly, hospitable atmosphere. Ideal for families or couples. In our opinion, waking up to the Saruni Samburu view has to be one of the ultimate Kenya experiences. An Imagine Africa favourite!

What past clients say

"Truly amazing. Rooms, food and staff were wonderful. We especially liked that we had local staff and open vehicles, to make our safari rides even more wonderful. Truly fantastic" – Mr & Mrs Goldstein travelled in September 2009

"Very very good chef, location wow, leopard in camp" – Mr & Mrs Dockray travelled in November 2009

"Beautiful views from the room. Our guide did a great job in taking care of us." – Mr & Mrs Shaw travelled in January 2010.

Days

- 5 After breakfast, you will be transferred to the airstrip in time for the Air Kenya flight departing 09h30 for the Masai Mara. On arrival into the Masai Mara at approx 10h45 you will be met by your guide and transferred to Mara Saruni, to stay for the next three nights including all meals and all game viewing activities.

Masai Mara

With an average of 3 lions per square kilometre and the annual migration of over a million wildebeest – the game viewing in the Masai Mara is outstanding! Added to this are all the 'big 5' animals of Africa, spectacular balloon safaris and a landscape that is quintessential east Africa - flat savannah grasslands stretching as far as the eye can see.

- 6-7 Full days game viewing in the Masai Mara. Saruni Mara offers night time and day time game drives and guided bush walks.

Saruni Mara

Saruni Mara is a luxury lodge in the northern sector of the Masai Mara with six spacious cottages. The food is exceptional, and they have a 'Spa in the Forest' offering various massage and spa treatments. Owner Riccardo is a charismatic host and with some of the best qualified guides in Kenya, Saruni offers one of the best all round experiences in the Masai Mara - cuisine, accommodation, spa, safari activities, atmosphere – all are first class.

What past clients say

"Great vacation and staff. Safari was first rate." – Mr & Mrs Campbell travelled in March 2010

"Perfect .It helped by having the lodge to ourselves for three days. The guides were wonderful, and went above and beyond" – Mr & Mrs Casci travelled in June 2010

"Would recommend - for personal welcome, secluded cottages, fantastic setting and excellent food/service. Guiding was excellent, particularly for keen bird watchers. 3 hour walk directly from camp was a highlight." – Mr & Mrs Morgan travelled in February 2010.

OPTION: you can also go take a hot air balloon flight over the Masai Mara during your time here. Cost to do this is £335 per person.

Day 8

In the afternoon, transfer to the airstrip for the Mombasa Air Safari flight departing 14h00 direct to Ukunda airstrip south of Mombasa. On arrival at 16h30 you will be met and transferred (1 hr) to Msambweni House to stay for the next six nights in a master room with all meals included.

Kenya Coast

Kenya's 500 km Indian Ocean coastline is one of the country's main attractions. It offers a striking combination of Swahili culture, superb palm lined beaches and colourful marine life. The coral reef running the length of the coast protects the shoreline for swimming and watersports and offers good scuba diving.

Days

9-13 Five full days to enjoy the Kenya Coast. Enjoy a lazy day by the pool sipping a cocktail of your choice and after take a long walk on the deserted beach. Alternatively enjoy a snorkelling experience, go deep sea fishing in the Indian Ocean, dive with turtles, swim with dolphins or simply swim in the sea. Massages, pedicures and manicures are available on request.

Msambweni House

Msambweni House is a chic and contemporary beach property on a lovely stretch of the coast south of Mombasa. Accommodation is in five rooms in the main house and two luxury 'Lamu Villas' which both have gorgeous infinity pools. With a reputation for excellent personal service, this boutique hotel is a superb 'honeymoon hideaway' whilst the 700 feet of private beach and further four miles of palm lined coastline provides opportunity aplenty for activity and adventure. In our opinion - a superb rustic beach retreat.

What past clients say

Booking Conditions

The holidays featured on this website are operated by Imagine Africa Ltd (the Company) which is registered in England under company number 05215195. Imagine Africa has a number of subsidiary brands including Ride Africa and Imagine Latin America. The following conditions, together with our general information and the relevant details set out on this website and in our brochure, will form part of your contract with the Company.

A. If you book any of our arrangements in conjunction with other services (e.g. flights) which are arranged or provided by a travel agent with whom you book (and not us), your contract for your entire holiday will be with your travel agent and not with us.
 B. If you book only one component of a holiday with us (e.g. accommodation), then we act only as a booking agent for the supplier concerned. Your contract for that component is with the supplier. The terms set out below will not apply.
 C. For all other bookings your contract will be with Imagine Africa. The conditions set out below apply to that contract. We both agree that the contract and any matters arising from it are governed by the laws of England, Wales, Northern Ireland and Scotland and are subject to the jurisdiction of the courts in these regions. These booking conditions were published in January 2010. The holidays featured are operated by Imagine Africa Ltd (the Company) which is registered in England under company number 05215195. The following conditions, together with the relevant information set out in this brochure and on our website will form part of your contract with the Company.

1. BOOKING YOUR HOLIDAY

When you make a booking and pay a deposit, or pay in full (if you are booking within 10 weeks of departure), a contract will exist as soon as we issue you with a confirmation invoice. It is your responsibility to check this confirmation invoice, and to advise us if there are any errors or omissions. The Company will try and arrange for special requests to be met but these cannot be guaranteed. The Company will not be liable if any special request is not met. If you arrange your holiday direct with the Company all correspondence will be forwarded to the lead passenger on the confirmation invoice unless otherwise stipulated. If your booking is made through a travel agent all communications by the Company will be made to that address.

2. PAYMENTS

A deposit of £350.00 per person is payable at time of booking. Upon receipt of this the Company will forward a confirmation invoice. Payment of the balance is due no later than 10 weeks before departure. Please note that your accommodation, flights etc. will only be requested once your deposit has been received. Your confirmation invoice will indicate the cost of your requested package and you will be advised if any elements are on request and unconfirmed at the time the invoice is issued. If the booking is made within 10 weeks of departure, full payment is required at the time of booking. If the holiday is made through a travel agent, all monies paid by the client to the travel agent, under or in contemplation of a contract with Imagine Africa Ltd are held by the travel agent as an agent of Imagine Africa Ltd. If payment is not received on the due date the holiday or travel arrangements will be liable to cancellation which will lead to loss of deposit. Tickets and other documents will normally be forwarded 14 - 21 days before date of departure.

3. PRICE POLICY

Prices in this brochure were calculated on the basis of known costs at the time of writing in January 2010. Individual accommodation and service prices have calculated using the following exchange rates for £1; 1.6 US Dollars, 12 South African Rand, 1.10 Euros, 50 Mauritius Rupees. The price of unsold holidays may be increased or decreased at any time. The price of your holiday will be confirmed on booking. When you have booked your holiday and paid your deposit, the price of your holiday as shown on your confirmation invoice is guaranteed and will not be subject to any changes or surcharges unless you elect to change the confirmed booking (see Clause 5). At no time is the Company liable to give a breakdown of costs due to the nature of the holiday bought by the client. Due to the financial commitments the Company is not able to make reductions in holiday prices should the £ strengthen.

4. CANCELLATION BY YOU

Any cancellation by the client must be advised in writing to the Company by the lead passenger. Cancellation will only come into effect on the day written advice is received by the Company. Recorded or Special Delivery is strongly recommended. Upon receipt the following charges (excluding insurance premiums and amendment charges paid) will be payable by the client, depending upon the number of days prior to departure

Days prior to departure date when written advice of cancellation received	% of holiday payable
Up to 70 Days prior	deposit forfeit
70-44 Days prior	30%
43-32 Days prior	60%
31-22 Days prior	75%
21- 0 Days prior	100%

We would strongly recommend that you take out full insurance at the time of booking which will in most cases cover against loss of deposit or cancellation charges.

5. CHANGES MADE TO A CONFIRMED BOOKING

Where changes are possible, an administration fee of £30.00 (plus any communication charges) per alteration is applicable. Alteration of a booking within 10 weeks of departure date may incur additional costs. PLEASE NOTE: Most flight tickets cannot be changed without payment of cancellation charges and/or the cost of a replacement ticket. It is important that correct names are provided at the time of booking and it is your responsibility to check names on first receipt of your confirmation invoice.

6. ALTERATION TO A CONFIRMED BOOKING WHILST ABROAD

We regret that no credit or refund is possible for any unused services provided in the cost of your holiday. If you decide to alter your travel arrangements whilst abroad this is your own responsibility and Imagine Africa Ltd or the Company's Agents are not responsible for any extras or difficulties that may arise with onward travel as a result of such alterations. No credit or refund is possible for any lost, mislaid, stolen or destroyed documents which could be the subject of a claim on your own insurance.

7. CANCELLATION OR ALTERATION BY US

We reserve the right to cancel your holiday at any time. In the event of the Company having to alter, amend or cancel the holiday on or before the date when the balance of payment becomes due, you will be offered a choice of an alternative holiday of at least comparable standard if available and if this is not acceptable, a full refund of all monies received by the Company will be due. In the unlikely event that we have to cancel or materially alter a holiday after the balance due date (always providing that the balance has been paid) but more than 14 days before the intended date of departure, compensation of £10 per person per affected day will be paid to the client or £20 per person per affected day in the event of cancellation or material alteration within 14 days of the intended departure date.

FORCE MAJEURE: Circumstances amounting to "force majeure" include any event which we or the supplier of the services in question could not, even with all due care, foresee or avoid such as war or threat of war, civil strife, riot, terrorist activity, industrial dispute, natural or nuclear disaster, fire, sickness, bad weather, the acts of any Government or public authority and all similar events which are beyond our control. It is regretted that under such circumstances there will be no compensation payable. Please note, we are reliant on information provided by the Foreign Office.

8. OUR RESPONSIBILITIES

The Company applies all reasonable checks to ensure that those involved in the preparation and provision of your holiday maintain the appropriate standards. The descriptions, information and opinions in this brochure by the Company in respect of airlines, hotels and other suppliers whose services are used are given in good faith, based on the latest information at the time of printing. The Company accepts responsibility for acts/and or omissions of all those in our employment and all those acting as agents.

In addition the Company accepts responsibility if you suffer death or personal injury as a direct result of the holiday arrangements failing to be as described and of a reasonable standard. However the Company will not accept responsibility if there has been no fault on the part of the Company or its suppliers and the loss, death or personal injury suffered is attributable to your own acts or omissions, to the acts or omissions of a third party not involved with providing the services which make up your holiday or to the unusual or unforeseeable circumstances whose consequences could not have been avoided or anticipated. If any client suffers death, illness or injury whilst overseas arising out of activity which does not form part of the inclusive holiday arrangements or excursion arranged through us, we shall, at our discretion offer assistance, provided we are advised of the incident within 90 days of the occurrence. Where legal action is contemplated, our authority must be obtained prior to commencement of proceedings and be subject to your undertaking to assign any costs recovered or any benefits received under an appropriate insurance policy to ourselves. All assistance is provided subject to a maximum total cost to ourselves of £5000 per booking form.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this clause, the Company's liability and/or the amount of compensation payable by the Company is limited in accordance with relevant international conventions, as amended, namely the Warsaw Convention, the Geneva Convention, the Berne Convention, the Athens convention and the Paris Convention. Copies of all relevant conventions are available from the company on request.

9. RESPONSIBILITY OF THE CLIENT

Any passports, visas, health certificates, International Driving Licences and other travel documents required for the holiday must be obtained by the client, whose responsibility it remains to ensure that these are all in order and to meet any additional costs incurred (whether by the client or by the Company on the clients behalf) as a result of failure to comply with such requirements. You are responsible to arrive at stated departure times and places and any loss or damage which you suffer through failure to do so lies with you. The Company has no liability whatsoever to you through your failure to do so. The Foreign & Commonwealth Advice Unit may have issued information about your holiday destination. You are advised to check this information at www.fco.gov.uk or by telephone.

10. FLIGHT ROUTINGS AND TIMINGS AND AIRPORT DELAYS

The flight timings given on booking and detailed on your confirmation invoice are for general guidance only and are subject to change. The latest timings will be shown on your tickets. You must accordingly check your tickets very carefully immediately on receipt. It is possible that flight times may be changed even after tickets have been dispatched – we will contact you as soon as possible if this occurs. We are not always in a position to confirm the airline, aircraft type and airport of destination which will be used in connection with any flight included in your holiday. When this information is provided at the time of booking or subsequently, it is subject to change. Any such change will not entitle you to cancel or change to other arrangements without paying our normal charges. We are not in a position to assist in the event of a delay. The airline will be responsible for making any necessary arrangements.

If your flight is cancelled or delayed, your flight ticket is downgraded or boarding is denied by your airline in circumstances which would entitle you to claim compensation against the airline under EC

Regulation No 261/2004 - the Denied Boarding Regulations 2004, you must pursue the airline for the compensation due to you. All sums you receive or are entitled to receive from the airline concerned by virtue of these Regulations represent the full amount of your entitlement to compensation or any other payment arising from such cancellation, delay, downgrading or denied boarding. This includes any disappointment, distress, inconvenience or effect on any other arrangements. The fact a delay may entitle you to cancel your flight does not automatically entitle you to cancel any other arrangements even where those arrangements have been made in conjunction with your flight. We have no liability to make any payment to you in relation to the Denied Boarding Regulations or in respect of any flight cancellation or delay, downgrading of any flight ticket or denial of any boarding as the full amount of your entitlement to any compensation or other payment (as dealt with above) is covered by the airline's obligations under the Denied Boarding Regulations. If, for any reason, you do not claim against the airline and make a claim for compensation from us, you must, at the time of payment of any compensation to you, make a complete assignment to us of the rights you have against the airline in relation to the claim that gives rise to that compensation payment. If your airline does not comply with these rules you should complain to the Air Transport Users' Council on 020 7240 6061 www.auc.org.uk

11. COMPLAINTS

Most problems can be sorted out straight away if we know about them. If you have a complaint you must report it immediately and directly to the supplier (e.g. Hotel Manager), or the emergency contact numbers provided with your travel documents. If you fail to follow this procedure, this may affect your rights under this contract, as we have been deprived of the opportunity to investigate and rectify the problem. If the problem cannot be resolved locally and you wish to complain, full details must be received in writing within 28 days of return.

12. SPECIAL REQUESTS

If you have any special request, you must advise us in writing at the time of booking. We regret we cannot guarantee any request will be met unless we have specifically confirmed this. Confirmation that a special request has been noted or passed on to the supplier or the inclusion of your special request on your confirmation invoice or any other documentation is not confirmation that the request will be met. If you or any member of your party has any medical problem or disability which may affect your holiday, please tell us before we confirm your booking so that we can advise as to the suitability of the chosen arrangements. In any event, you must give us full details in writing at the time of booking.

13. INSURANCE

We believe it is essential to take out travel insurance when you go on holiday. Adequate travel insurance must be taken out at the time of booking. You may choose to insure through us - Imagine Africa have negotiated a special rate arranged with Travel & General Ltd, a member of the General Insurance Standards Council. A full specimen policy can be provided by our staff and there is a 'cooling off period' after the policy has been issued. If you decide to take your own insurance, it is your responsibility to ensure the insurance you purchase is adequate for your particular needs. We will not make any payments to you or on your behalf in respect of losses or expenses you incur as a result of your failure to have purchased adequate insurance.

14. CONSUMER PROTECTION

The air holidays in this brochure are ATOL protected, since we hold an Air Travel Organiser's Licence granted by the Civil Aviation Authority. Our ATOL number is ATOL 6607. In the unlikely event of our insolvency, the CAA will ensure that you are not stranded abroad and will arrange to refund any money you have paid to us for an advance booking. For further information, visit the ATOL website at www.atol.org.uk.
